137-CE-146

Application for Intervenor Compensation filed by Hillside Heights Neighborhood Association for $18,073 to Participate in Docket 137-CE-146

1-IC-389

ORDER

At its open meeting of August 2, 2007, the Commission reviewed the intervenor compensation request of the Hillside Heights Neighborhood Association for $16,573 to participate in docket 137-CE-146. The Commission approved compensation of $12,000 to cover attorney fees and administrative costs as described in the Intervenor Compensation application.

The Commission rejected the requested compensation for the proposed expert witnesses David Stetzer and Jay Allen. The Commission noted that it would entertain a request for additional compensation if the neighborhood association can identify other appropriate expert witnesses it wishes to put forward.

Commissioner Azar recused herself from discussion and consideration of the request.

Notice of Appeal Rights

Notice is hereby given that a person aggrieved by the foregoing decision has the right to file a petition for judicial review as provided in Wis. Stat. § 227.53. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the date of mailing of this decision. That date is shown on the first page. If there is no date on the first page, the date of mailing is shown immediately above the signature line. The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin must be named as respondent in the petition for judicial review.

Notice is further given that, if the foregoing decision is an order following a proceeding which is a contested case as defined in Wis. Stat. § 227.01(3), a person aggrieved by the order has the further right to file one petition for rehearing as provided in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. The petition must be filed within 20 days of the date of mailing of this decision.

If this decision is an order after rehearing, a person aggrieved who wishes to appeal must seek judicial review rather than rehearing. A second petition for rehearing is not an option.

This general notice is for the purpose of ensuring compliance with Wis. Stat. § 227.48(2), and does not constitute a conclusion or admission that any particular party or person is necessarily aggrieved or that any particular decision or order is final or judicially reviewable.
